INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. (an S corporation) as of December 31, 2004, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. as of December 31, 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

COMPREHENSIVE ASSET MANAGEMENT AND SERVICING, INC. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2004

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered securities broker-dealer and is subject to regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Company operates pursuant to brokerage service agreements with clearing brokers, under which these clearing brokers assume and maintain the Company's customer accounts. The Company's clients are located primarily throughout the United States. The Company's primary operating facilities are located in Parsippany, New Jersey.

Use of Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and assumptions regarding certain types of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Such estimates primarily relate to unsettled transactions and events as of the date of the financial statements. Accordingly, upon settlement, actual results in the near term could differ from estimated amounts.

Revenue Recognition

Commission revenue and related commission expense are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities and other investment transactions occur. Other revenue, which includes financial planning and consulting services, is recognized when the services have been provided and are billable.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Included in this amount at December 31, 2004 is $114,794 of funds held by the Company's clearing broker-dealers. These amounts result from the broker-dealer's collection of customer fees and commissions for the Company's account.

Commissions Receivable/Significant Concentrations of Credit Risk

Commissions receivable represents unsecured amounts due from clearing brokers. Management periodically assesses the collectibility of the amounts, and has determined a corresponding allowance for uncollectible amounts is not required at this time. Interest and finance charges are not accrued on open balances.

Securities Transactions

Proprietary securities transactions in regular-way trades, if any, are recorded on the trade date, as if they had settled. Profit and loss arising from all securities and commodities transactions entered into for the account and risk of the Company are recorded on a trade date basis. The Company does not take possession of customers' securities or commodities.

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Credit Risk Arising from Cash Deposits in Excess of Insured Limits

The Company maintains cash balances at financial institutions, deposits in which are insured by a federal agency up to $100,000. At various times cash balances at this institution may exceed the insurance limits. Cash equivalents are not insured.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment is provided for by the straight-line method over five years, which is the estimated useful life of the respective assets.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected, with the consent of its stockholders, to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the applicable federal and State of New Jersey tax laws. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal income taxes and pays approximately a one percent tax to the State of New Jersey. The stockholders then include their allocable share of the Company's taxable income or loss on their individual federal and New Jersey income tax returns.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15.00 to 1. At December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital of $173,398, which was $148,398 in excess of its required net capital of $25,000. The Company's ratio of aggregated indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2004 was 0.14 to 1, which is less than the maximum allowable ratio at the date of 15.00 to 1.

Note 3 - Commitments / Subsequent Events

The Company is obligated under a five-year lease for office facilities, which expires in February 2005, at a monthly rent of $7,570. The Company renewed its lease for a five-year term, which expires February 2010, at a monthly rent of $7,570. The Company is also liable for its proportionate share of increases in operating costs and real estate taxes.

The Company has leased part of its office facilities to two subtenants, on a month-to-month basis, at an aggregate monthly rent of approximately $1,600. Rent expense for office facilities, net of sublease income of $19,200, was $74,965 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Note 4 - Related Party Transactions

The Company is a party to expense reimbursement agreements with other business entities, the ownership of which is the same as the Company. The Company provides the use of its office facilities, and managerial, administrative and professional services to these affiliates. The joint expenses and costs are allocated to each entity based on management's estimates of use. The expenses and costs incurred and reimbursed to the Company in 2004 are summarized as follows:

Allocated to:

Comprehensive Capital Management, I	nc. $ 515,000
Comprehensive Brokerage Services, Inc.	c. 50,000
First Advisors Financial Group, LLC	10,000
	$ 575,000

Of the above amount, salaries have been reduced by $90,000 and the balance of $485,000 reported as an unallocated reduction of expenses, all of which have been reflected in the accompanying statement of income.

Obligations to affiliates result from cash advances, which are non-interest bearing and due on demand. At December 31, 2004, the Company had obligations due from its affiliates of $5,794.

At December 31, 2004 the Company had made advances of approximately $16 to its majority stockholder. Such advances, when significant, bear interest at the federal annual blended rate. These advances are unsecured and due on demand.

Note 4 - Related Party Transactions (continued)

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FIN 46, entitled Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities that provides guidance in determining when variable interest entities should be consolidated in the financial statements of the primary beneficiary. The consolidation provisions of FIN 46, as revised, are effective in fiscal years beginning after December 13, 2004. The Company has not made a final evaluation to determine if the related parties will need to be consolidated. The Company believes that its maximum exposure to loss as a result of its involvement with these entities as of December 31, 2004 is immaterial to the Company's results of operations and financial position.

Note 5 - Profit Sharing Plan

The Company sponsors a 401(k) profit-sharing plan that covers all employees who meet certain eligibility requirements. The Company may, at its discretion, contribute to the plan. No discretionary contributions were made for 2004.

Note 6 - Supplemental Disclosure of Cash Flow Information

Cash paid for state income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $550.

Note 7 – Receivables from Broker-Dealers and Clearing Organizations

Amounts receivable from broker-dealers and clearing organizations at December 31, 2004 include deposits with a clearing broker-dealer of $25,000 and commissions receivable of $133,957. The Company clears its customer transactions as an introducing broker through another broker-dealer on a fully disclosed basis.

Note 8 - Contingencies

At times, the Company may be named in litigation arising during the normal course of business. Currently, management is not aware of any such litigation that may have a material effect on the Company's financial position.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

To the Stockholders of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. (the "Company"), for the year ended December 31, 2004, we considered its internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in:

- 1. making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons;
- 2. recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13:
- 3. complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of the design and operation may deteriorate.

To the Stockholders of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. Page 2

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2004, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, NASD and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
